When we get back to the City, we find a note on the table.

Margaret's neat handwriting, honed from a million report cards...

...telling us where to go...

...as they found a place to stay.

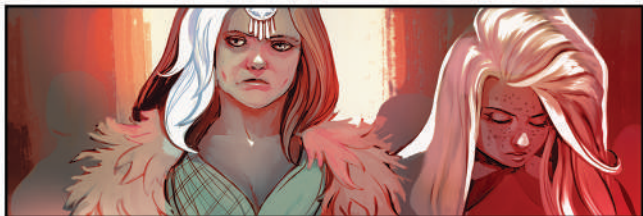

Er... don't recognise it?

No, should I?

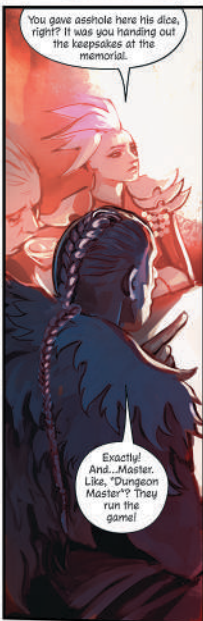

Hey, Violet's here!

We were having a little think...

...did you bring us here?

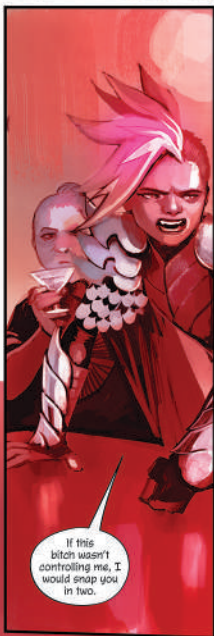

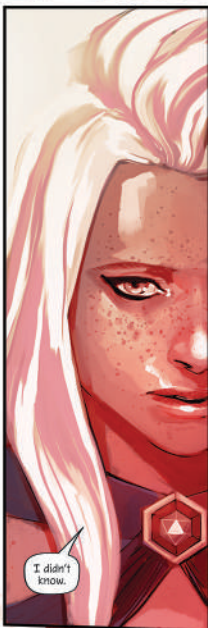

You gave asshole here his dice, right? It was you handing out the keepsakes at the memorial.

Exactly!
And...Master.
Like, "Dungeon Master"? They run the game!

I didn't know.

If this bitch wasn't controlling me, I would snap you in two.

You're freed.
