

GUILLERMO DEL TORO & CHUCK HOGAN'S

THE STRAIN

VOLUME 4 THE FALL | LAPHAM HUDDLESTON JACKSON

ONE WEEK AGO, THEY INVADDED MANHATTAN.
NOW THEY WILL DESTROY THE WORLD.

With the streets teeming with vampires and chaos, there's little hope of victory for a ragtag band of vampire hunters protecting Manhattan. But elderly pawnbroker Abraham Setrakian is convinced that an ancient tome called the Occido Lumen holds the key to turning the tide and defeating the Master. Can they find a way to thwart the black will of this ancient evil in time, or is New York doomed to be the first human stronghold to fall against the plague of vampires?

Adapting the horrific and action-packed second novel from Guillermo del Toro and Chuck Hogan's New York Times best-selling Strain Trilogy, this volume of The Strain: The Fall concludes the vampire war, revealing the fate of Manhattan and . . . the world.

"David Lapham moves away from the police procedural aspects of the first novel, and narrates a different kind of story. Darker in tone and more violent."—Bloody Disgusting

ISBN 978-1-61655-449-1
$19.99 US
$21.99 CAN

DarkHorse.com

GRAPHIC NOVEL/HORROR/SCIENCE FICTION