MARC'S
POP TART
SERIAL KILLER
BLOG

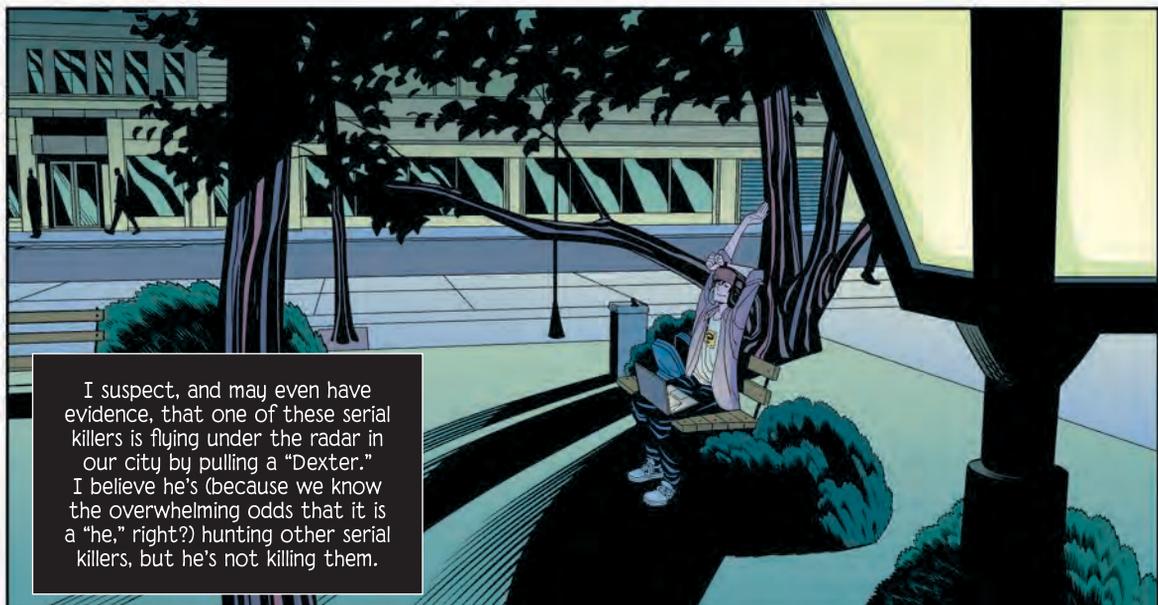

I was right about
the "baggie man"
in Louisiana.

I'm going to be right
about who is really behind the deaths at that sunflower farm
in Kansas.

I'm bringing these up only because I believe there are far more serial killers in America than the authorities would like us to believe. Statistically speaking, the odds tell us there are at least several active serial killers in every American city. Yes, even ours.

I suspect, and may even have evidence, that one of these serial killers is flying under the radar in our city by pulling a "Dexter." I believe he's (because we know the overwhelming odds that it is a "he," right?) hunting other serial killers, but he's not killing them.

Instead, he's copying their m.o. and then framing them. As soon as his targeted serial killer is caught, he moves on to copying a different one.

It would make sense for this sort of serial killer to be a...
